DC2017 Workshop:
Can Impacting Spinal Health Affect Pediatric Well-Being?
A Look at the Evidence.

Presenters:
Jenny Brocker, DC, DICCP
Elise G. Hewitt, DC, DICCP, FICC

Selected Pediatric Chiropractic References

Systematic Reviews and Overview Articles

References from section on Safety of Manual Therapies in Children:

Impact of Spinal Health on Musculoskeletal Conditions in Children:

1) Spine
2) Extremities

3) Headache

Impact of Spinal Health on Non-Musculoskeletal Conditions in Children:
1) Asthma and Respiratory Disease

2) Breastfeeding Difficulties

3) Colic

4) Constipation and Gastrointestinal Conditions

5) Otitis Media

6) Primary Nocturnal Enuresis
Epidemiology of Pediatric Conditions and Miscellaneous Publications Regarding Pediatric Chiropractic Care

Addendum – Though not indexed in the major databases, many more quality articles on the topic of chiropractic pediatrics can be found in the Journal of Clinical Chiropractic Pediatrics, available via open access at http://www.jccponline.com/index.html.